

ROGUE VALLEY TRANSPORTATION DISTRICT

Public Information Concerning Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, as amended Rogue Valley Transportation District (RVT) is the recipient of Federal funding to provide public transportation. RVT operates programs subject to the nondiscrimination requirements under Title VI and the ADA.

The following examples, without being exhaustive, illustrate the application of the nondiscrimination provisions of certain Department of Transportation operating administrations.

- Any person who is, or seeks to be, a patron of any public vehicle which is operated as a part of, or in conjunction with, a project shall be given the same access, seating, and other treatment with regard to the use of such vehicle as other persons without regard to their race, color, national origin, or disability.

Title VI / ADA information and documents are available on the District's website at www.RVT.org or upon request by calling (541) 779-5821 or at the Administrative Offices located at 3200 Crater Lake Ave. Medford, OR.

Individuals or organizations who believe they have been denied the benefits of, excluded from participation in, or subject to discrimination on the grounds of race, color national origin, or disability by Rogue Valley Transportation District (RVT) may file an administrative complaint with RVT under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 or the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990. If the complaint is not resolved satisfactorily by RVT, individuals may file a complaint with the FTA Office of Civil Rights. Information is available at http://www.fta.dot.gov/civil_rights.html.
